

SCHEDULE OVERVIEW FOR THE GUITAR ACTIVITIES THIS WEEKEND
SUZUKI WORKSHOP AND APPALACHIAN GUITAR FESTIVAL GUITARFEST

NO NEED TO PRINT THIS INFORMATION BELOW.

This schedule is here only for those interested in an overview. A detailed schedule of your child's guitar classes (including the information below) will be given to you when you arrive.

All Suzuki Workshop activities (master classes, group classes, and electives) will take place at the St. Lukes Episcopal Church 170 Councill St, Boone, NC 28607.

All GuitarFest activities take place at the Hayes School of Music in the Broyhill Music Center on the Appalachian State University campus 813 Rivers Street Boone, NC 28608, approximately one mile from St. Lukes Episcopal church.

FRIDAY GUITAR SCHEDULE

At The Suzuki Workshop (St. Lukes Episcopal Church):

- 3:00 - Registration for Suzuki Guitar Festival begins
- 3-4:30 - Optional Arts and Crafts Elective
- 3-4:30 - Optional Additional Private Lessons
These additional lessons are Friday only; faculty will not have time for additional lessons Saturday or Sunday. There is an additional fee for these - see your "To Do List".
- 5:00 - Welcome/Group Play In for all students with our guest clinician..
- 6PM – Optional Pizza Dinner (additional fee - see the link "Registration for the Boone Suzuki Workshop")
- 6:35 – Optional Student Competitors Recital and Jam Session!
This is an opportunity for students who will be competing in the Appalachian Guitar Festival competition to practice performing one of their required pieces if they are interested in doing so.
Directly afterwards we will have a jam session for everyone – violinists and guitarists and whatever - parents bring your instruments too! We will play fiddle tunes, popular tunes, and anything else that comes to mind!
- 8:00 - Optional Pool time and parent socializing at the Comfort Suites Boone Hotel. This is for those not attending the concert that evening at the Appalachian Guitar Festival. The pool is open until 11PM (older students may want to attend the concert and swim afterwards).

At the Appalachian GuitarFest (Hayes School of Music):

- 8:00 - Festival Opening Concert (additional fee. For information about the additional fee, see the item in the Dropbox titled "Tickets for GuitarFest Concerts Events". Young children must be accompanied by an adult.

SATURDAY GUITAR SCHEDULE

Schedules have been arranged so that there is no conflict with the Suzuki Workshop Schedule for those who desire to compete in the Guitar Competition at the University.

Saturday 8:00 - 9:00 a.m. (Optional)

Optional At The Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

- Optional Performance Development Class for all Suzuki Students in the Division IV GuitarFest Guitar Competition – these are students grades 8 and under. This time can instead be used to warm up alone if they prefer.

1ST SATURDAY HOUR 9:00 - 9:55

At The Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

- Suzuki Students in the Division IV GuitarFest Guitar Competition will be at the Hayes School of Music participating in the Competition. This is open to the public to observe. Absolute quiet must be maintained - no infants or young children are allowed in the hall. There is plenty of time for these students to get back for their 10:15 Group Class.
- Optional Performance Development Class for all Suzuki Students in the Division III GuitarFest Guitar Competition – these are students in grades 9-12. This time can instead be used to warm up alone if they prefer.

At The Suzuki Workshop (St. Luke's Episcopal Church):

- Guitar Master Classes, Elective Classes

2ND SATURDAY HOUR 10:15 - 11:10

At The Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

- Suzuki Students in the Division III GuitarFest Guitar Competition will be at the Hayes School of Music participating in the Competition. This is open to the public to observe. Absolute quiet must be maintained - no infants or young children are allowed in the hall. There is plenty of time for these students to get back for their 11:15 Group Class.

At The Suzuki Workshop:

- Guitar Master Classes, Guitar Group Class, Elective Classes

3RD SATURDAY HOUR 11:15 - 12:10

At The Suzuki Workshop:

- Guitar Master Classes, Guitar Group Class, Elective Classes

=====

12:10-3:30

LUNCH ON YOUR OWN AND ADDITIONAL ELECTIVES

At the Suzuki Workshop:

- Elective Classes. Because of our coordinating with the GuitarFest, this is the only time some students who participate in the competition can get these electives.
- Workshop participants: Lunch on your own and see a little of Boone or Blowing Rock

2:00 - 3:30 (Optional)

At the Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

- Competition Finals for Divisions III and IV at Hayes School of Music. If your child makes it to the finals, they will perform again at this time. This is open to the public to observe. Absolute quiet must be maintained - no infants or young children are allowed in the hall.

At the Suzuki Workshop:

- Optional Arts and Crafts Elective

=====

All activities at the Suzuki Workshop:

4TH SATURDAY HOUR 3:30 - 4:25

- Guitar Master Classes, Elective Classes

5TH SATURDAY HOUR (4:30 - 5:25)

- Guitar Master Classes, Elective Classes

6TH SATURDAY HOUR (5:30 - 6:30)

- Student/Faculty Concert, all participants, guitar and violin.

SATURDAY EVENING

6:30 - Dinner on your own, Faculty dinner.

8:00 PM - (optional) Pool time and parent socializing at the Comfort Suites Boone hotel, for those who prefer not to attend the concert at the App Guitar Festival. The pool is open until 11PM (Students may want to attend just the first half of the concert and swim afterwards).

At the Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

8:00 - Appalachian Guitar Festival This is a ticketed event (admission fee for non Guitarfest registrants). The winners for competition divisions II III and IV, and finalists for the Sunday concert will be announced at the intermission. Young children must be accompanied by an adult.

SUNDAY ACTIVITIES (Optional)

12:00 - Lunch on your own.

At the Hayes School of Music (Appalachian Guitar Festival):

1:00 - Appalachian Guitar Festival Competition Finals for Division 1. This is a ticketed event (admission is free for Guitarfest registrants). These are the older competitors, many of them university graduates. You will see some really great guitar playing at this competition!

- Announcement of competition winner at the end.

Enjoy Boone and Blowing Rock, then go home and practice!