

BOONE SUZUKI WORKSHOP GUITAR OFFERINGS

Each guitar student arriving for the Friday portion of the workshop will receive:

At the Suzuki Workshop:

- Optional Arts and Crafts Elective
- Optional Additional Private Lessons (additional fee involved)
- Welcome/Group Play In for all students with our guest clinician.
- Optional Pizza Dinner
- Friday Night Jam Session! An opportunity for students who will be competing in the Appalachian Guitar Festival competition to practice performing, as well as a jam session after for everyone.

At the Appalachian GuitarFest:

- Optional Evening Concert at the Appalachian GuitarFest, free for GuitarFest registrants, additional fee for non-registrants (special discounted ticket prices for Suzuki students)
- Optional Pool Time and parent socializing at the Comfort Suites Boone Hotel. This is for those not attending the concert that evening at the Appalachian Guitar Festival. The pool is open until 11PM (older students may want to attend the concert and swim afterwards).

Each guitar student on Saturday will receive:

At the Suzuki Workshop:

- One Saturday masterclass - with either our visiting clinician or our visiting teacher.
- One Saturday group classe – with our visiting clinician.
- Two Saturday electives: Guitar Building and Ukelele Class
- One Final Concert - this will be an end of the day, an entire group performance opportunity. This will include the Suzuki repertoire as well our special music for this year. Any student who prepares this music is invited to work together with other students and perform this wonderful ensemble music, including guitar/violin performance opportunities from Vivaldi to Appalachian fiddle tunes with our Suzuki "Fiddle Tricks" violin component running concurrently with our Guitar Workshop. See the document "Music To Print" in this Dropbox for more information about this music.
- Optional Arts and Crafts elective (all day) – including designing next year's T-shirt design.
- Opportunity to have your guitar repaired or just "tuned up" by our resident guitar maker Jason Pickard (fee involved - discuss this with Mr. Pickard)
- Opportunity to buy or sell an "outgrown" guitar. Bring your used instruments, and we will display them for you at our registration desk.

At the Appalachian GuitarFest:

- Opportunity to attend Appalachian GuitarFest Lectures and Master Classes (free)
- Opportunity to view and/or play guitars made by luthiers showing their instruments at the Appalachian GuitarFest
- Opportunity to participate in (fee involved) or observe (free) the GuitarFest Guitar Competition
The Suzuki Workshop offers a special elective class to prepare students for this experience.
- Optional evening concert at the Appalachian GuitarFest (free for GuitarFest registrants, additional special discounted fee for non-registrants from our Suzuki Workshop)
- Optional Pool time and parent socializing at the Comfort Suites Boone Hotel. This is for those not attending the concert that evening at the Appalachian Guitar Festival. The pool is open until 11PM (older students may want to attend the concert and swim afterwards).

Each guitar student on Sunday will receive:

- Optional - 1:00 Division I Competition Final Round, free for GuitarFest registrants, additional fee for non-registrants (special discounted ticket prices for Suzuki students), see "Tickets for GuitarFest Concerts Events". These are the older competitors, many of them university graduates. You will see some really great guitar playing at this competition!
  - Announcement of competition winner at the end.
- Optional - There are the many fun recreational activities and interesting shops worth visiting in Boone, as well as Blowing Rock located about 15 minutes from Boone.

We will be continuing construction on last year's guitar with Mr. Pickard
